Probable Cause Affidavit

Before me this date personally appeared DELGAUDIO, RICHARD M. (530) who being first duly sworn deposes and says that on 2 day of June, (year) 2019 at [REDACTED] (crime location) the above named defendant committed the above offenses charged and the facts showing probable cause to believe the same are as follows:

about to take place.

On 06/02/2019, at approximately 1539 hours, I was dispatched to [REDACTED] in reference to a disturbance with a weapon.

Upon arrival, I met with (VI) [REDACTED] who stated that she and her husband (RP) [REDACTED] came home from a vacation at around 1530 hours. While she was unpacking her vehicle, she noticed a white 4 door Cadillac in the road, in front of her driveway. The vehicle honked its horn at the VI and signaled by waving his hand (observed via front windshield) for her to come to the passenger side. She went to the driver's side window and as she approached an unknown black male, described as a black male with curls down to his shoulders with a red tint to his hair, rolled the drivers side window down halfway and pointed a 7-inch dark in color handgun at her face. The defendant did not say anything to her while pointing the firearm at her. She screamed to her husband "He has a gun" as she ran from the vehicle and took cover behind her vehicle in her driveway. She advised me that she was in fear for her life and felt that she was going to die that very moment. The vehicle then left the scene without further incident.

VI stated the unknown male was the sole occupant of the vehicle. She was not able to provide any further information on the vehicle.

A BOLO was issued on BSO Main Channel of the vehicle and the occupant.

Reviewed video surveillance footage from the entrance gate to the [REDACTED] community revealed a white four door Cadillac with yellow trim around the tires, a gold Cadillac

A complete NCIC records check was conducted on the tag and revealed the vehicle belongs to a Solomon Stinson out of Miami Dade. An updated BOLO was administered with the tag number and full description of the vehicle. A request via Miramar Communications was made to Miami-Dade PD to make contact with the owner of the vehicle and ascertain the whereabouts of his vehicle. Ofc.
